

Moonarie New Route Update Aug 2010

This update is maintained by Rob Baker.
Please send route descriptions, and any other info to:
robmbaker@another.com

It's been decided that there'll be no unnamed routes at Moonarie so I've named any of the unnamed ones. If the first ascentionist is unhappy with the name, let me know a better one and I'll change it.

IF you have an opinion about stars allocated or not allocated to either new routes or existing routes, please email the feedback to Rob. Remember the grades are just suggestions. happy climbing

Dave Bowen, Kym Smith 26/9/2001

MADAME BUTTERFLY 20m 18
Nice moves up flakes and cracks
(Description in back of guidebook)
Dave Bowen
Dave has since added a belay bolt at the top of this pitch, which also serves Madam Lash.

THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL 20m 21
Follow the line of 3 bolts between Madam Butterfly and Crack Up. Move up and right to first bolt, then wander leftwards up the wall trying not to stray into Crack Up.
Dave Bowen, Andrew Temple, John
Marshall. 14/4/2001

CRACK UP ARETE 20m 16
The arête right of crack up- 2 bolts. Start up Crack Up and move out to arête and first bolt.
Continue up arête.
Dave Bowen, Kym Smith, 13/4/2001

TOO HARD TO GET TO 25m 14
Fun, the black slab right of Lignase.
Approach via Crack Up's ledge or the first pitch of Lignase. Starts on ledge with single arête. 2 bolts and rap chains.

Dave Bowen and Kym Smith 10/4/2001

LAY BACK AND THINK OF FRANK 15m 19
The obvious (wide) crack splitting the upper overhanging wall between Mutation and Blue Finger. Access by abseiling down Mutation to foot wide ledge and sidle across to belay at base of crack.
Steve Kelly, Rob Baker and Frank
1/10/2001

Ultra Mega Mega Block

This is the large block above the routes already described. Climb one of those routes to access the following ones.
There is now a abseil anchor above this block.

MADAM LASH 20m 23/24 *
A great effort by Dave. Starts from ledge above Madam Butterfly (Bolt and cam belay).
Crank through rooflet past 1st bolt (Stick clipped on first ascent), then up wall past 2 more bolts and a thread (long sling) up higher.

Dave Bowen 18/9/2001
Dave led this with only the original two bolts, but has since added a third to protect a long runout. He also added a belay bolt at the ledge above Madam Butterfly, which also serves this route.

BLOOD SPORT 20m 24/25 *
Hard crux! Prominent arête on block above Crack Up. Up arete past 3 bolts then finish straight up wall.
Rob Baker, James Foley 1/7/2001

ULTRA MEGA MEGA MAN 20m 24 **
Deceptively steep. Awesome moves on awesome holds. Climb the black streak on the overhanging face of the block above Crack Up. 3 bolts.
Rob Baker, James Foley, Vaughan Thomas 1/7/2001

ANOTHER ONE 22, 30m 2002
Up wall right of the Mega block past a few bolts, veering right at top.
Rob Baker

Colin Ridley 2004

A TEST FOR ECHO 25m 17

Right side of arête left of Thor Variant.
Start of large block, up crack and left over roof. Continue up wall right of arête, and then on to arête for final few metres.
Colin Ridley, James Falconer, Easter 2003.

MOONARIE ON A SHOESTRING (aka Bloodnut) 30m 24

After the initial failed bolting attempt, a large rock mysteriously appeared hanging by a shoelace from the stuffed up bolt.
Has some reachy sections. The line of six bolts between Pine Crack and Family Holiday.
Climb a couple of metres up Family Holiday, and then up to first bolt. Finish up crack on left side of scoop leading to the ledge on Pine Crack.
James Falconer, Rob Baker. April 2003.

The previous route can also be done by continuing further up Family Holiday, and joining the route at the second bolt. This avoids the first crux.

THE PASSENGER 40m 25 **

The cool, slopey, bulgy thing between Pine Crack and Desolation Angels. (1) 16 15m as for pitch 1 of Pine Crack but then move out right to belay anchors on ledge. (2) 25 25m Cant miss it. Up past 7 bolts and the odd bit of natural protection to double bolt belay.
Rob Baker, Seth Debolt, James Falconer, June 2003

INFIDELITY 30m 20

Climbs a direct line up the right side of Checkers wall, linking through two old routes down low, the second half of the route then ascends the orange wall between Angels with Dirty Faces and Trojan. Start up Cross Country Crack (Checkers wall) until at the bottom of the corner. Step right past a bolt and then up to join Angels in the groove. Once on the ledge, the upper wall is accessed by a move diagonally left up Angels, and then climbed past two bolts. Traverse off right before roof, and belay as for Trojan. Either continue up Trojan or climb across to the anchor above Wild Child.
James Falconer, Rob Baker. April 2002

HYPERDRIVE 30m 22

Start just right of Trojan up the crack. Clip the 1st bolt of Wild Child and move leftwards and up through roof. Hard move past bolt, then straight up and finish as for the last moves on Wild Child. DBB
Rob Baker, Luke Geelen, June 2002

ENTERTAINMENT MANAGER 20m 26??

The wall between Wild Child and Transferase with a few bolts.

Mick Well, Johnny Simms Oct 2006

The following routes are located on the recessed orange wall left of Seduction and The Black Hole of Calcutta.

LAYING CABLES 50m 20

(1) 17 25m The crack splitting the black slab between Transferase and Black Hole of Calcutta. Start just left of TBHOC and at 2 metres move left to crack then up to ledge. Continue up corner to belay on ledge below 1st bolt. (2) 20m 20 Straight up past 3 bolts and finish up scoop (bring sling for horn) moving left to chain/ bollard belay. 50m rap to ground.
Rob Baker, Luke Geelen, June 2002

SINKING BATTLESHIPS 50m 20

(1) Same as for Laying Cables. (2) Start about 3 m right of the 2nd pitch of Laying Cables. Up though bulges and past bolt to ledge. Finish up crack to bollard/ chain belay. Rob Baker, Luke Geelen, June 2002

BEEFCAKE 50 m 23 **

Steep and pumpy. The arête left of Lost in space. (1) 50 m 23 Start as for Vulcan but instead of traversing left under the roofs, go straight through roof and out to arête past 2 bolts. Continue up the right side of arête. (2) Climb up to ledges under Full Torque and escape off right or traverse over to Goldfinger chains and abseil off. Rob Baker, Geordie Webb, Jamie Anderson. 8/7/2001

GOLD PLATED CRAB 30m 15

(1) Up Goldfinger to second bolt, traverse left & up crossing Asimov, Quicksilver etc to belay in alcove as for Vulcan. (2) Traverse back to Goldfinger's chains. David Bowen, John Marshall 8/6/2002

PULL MY FINGER 10m 17

The arête left of The Purple Helmet. Sparsely protected. Climb on the right side of the arête thus avoiding the ordinary looking chimney Rob Baker, Vaughan Thomas, May 2001

THE PURPLE HELMET 10m 16

Perfect rock. Situated on the black wall. Left of Kiss my Aura Dora and opposite Asimov. Start on spacious ledge behind Asimov. Up corner in middle of face. A cam at 3m is the only worthwhile gear. Rob Baker, Vaughan Thomas, May 2001

Gargoyle Wall

COURT JESTER 35m 20

Around left from Corkscrew Retribution, is a line up a wall with 2 bolts. Up this, belay on ledge, then up wall above past 2 more bolts. Dave Bowen, Alex Mew Easter 2004

REGICIDE 33m 19/20

(1) 18m 19 As for pitch 1 of the Prince. (2) Move left off ledge onto ramp and up steep crack. Move left over bulge to horizontal breaks and up final steep crack. Dave Bowen and Alex Mew 26/4/2002 I've added the star to this cause it looks cool, and Dave won't – objections? JF

CAMILLA PARKER BOWLES 33m 15

'Beside the Prince but ignored by everyone for years'
(1) 18m 15 Up Prince for the first 2 metres, then move right and up the wall past a bolt and pockets to flake near arête. Continue up arête on big horizontals. (2) 15m 13 As for pitch 2 of the Prince Alexander Mew and Dave Bowen 26/4/2002

MALLORY ROUTE 17 30m

20/4/03.

CI 14 m 12 (RBKA)
Starts 3m R of chimney below 2nd of two cracks, grasp the ears and climb to stance at 3m, find the easiest way up on mossy arête between cracks. Duncan Love, Rod Mulvenny 19/4/03.

THE PUGILIST 10m 19
Immediately right of CI is a short wall with 3 horizontals, punch your way straight up the middle of the wall on these.
Dave Bowen, Rod Mulvenny 20/4/03.

Ramparts and Flying Buttress

SHE SMELLS LIKE COCONUTS 60m 18
Start 5m left of Chicken Crimpy at the base of right hand water mark.
1) 20m 18 Up narrow water mark (past bolt at 4m) then nice moves lead to belay cave.
2) 20m 17 Straight up through weakness (past left hand roof) , veering left to 2nd roof corner then left around on to sloping 'nose'. Move up through small roof into bottomless corner, then right onto arête. Up and veer right through orange rock to large roof, then hand traverse right and up to substantial cave/ledge.
3) 20m 14 Step left and climb slab to notch in summit boulders.
November 1 2000 Jamie Anderson,
Geordie Webb alt

BIRD OF PREY 25m 21

The wall perpendicular to the But Holland face on Flying Buttress. Start on ledge next to the tree. Start up the initial crack and then head straight up the wall past 3 bolts to finish at the Vortex belay.

Rob Baker, Vaughan Thomas, Easter 2001
A number of people who've done this recently have ended up going right in to the crack at the top. Don't do this. Go straight up the wall. The following two climbs are on the steep buttress down and left of flying buttress with small roof near the bottom.

LOADED BOWEL 25m 23
Rob Baker, Steve Pollard October 2002-10-08

LEGENDARY STRONGMAN 25m 25

Stuart Wythe, HB, late 2003

GAMBLER 17m 25
The face buttress left of Flying Buttress. Scramble up to crack 2m left of Flying Buttress. Up crack to ledge. Then step right around small roof and up onto face, keeping just left of the arête. Skirt around base of the pillar to large ledge below But Holland is a Country wall. DBB/Rap chains (40m to ground).
Rob Baker, Vaughan Thomas October 2002
The next two climbs start on a ledge as for pitch 2 of "BirdBrain".

FROZEN IN TIME 25m21.
Up slab left of "birdbrain's" corner to overlap, traverse right (bolt) up small corner to a belay on ledge .escape to chains on arête.
David Bowen and John Marshall 11/8/02

SWOOPING PTERODACTYLS 75m 22

Start's right of "birdbrain's" corner. (1) straight up passing 4 bolts through bulges to a stance under roof, left through roof crack and up to dbb (chains).(2) 30m 20, through roof past 2 bolts then head for big ramp past 3 more bolts, belay at top of ramp on bollard. (3) 20m 20 Up steep scoops past 2 bolts, onto ledge up ramp and headwall various sling threads, DBB on ledge. (50m rap to chains on pitch 1 possible)
David Bowen, John Marshall 14/7/2002
(both led) (2) & (3) 10/8/2002.
Stars are for the first pitch. This has been confirmed by a number of people.

CAUGHT SHORT 60m 17

The crack and face between These Eagles and Icarus. (1) 17 40m Start as for These Eagles and Icarus and once over initial roof had straight up to scoopy crack and horizontals to spacious ledge. (2) 15 20m Move up and right around right end of roof and straight up the wall above to top. Scramble off.
Rob Baker, Dave Ceber, July 2003.

WAXEN WINGS 25 m 16

A variant second pitch to Icarus. Climb the crack between Icarus and Ultion till it expires, straight up through bulge and up to airy moves through roof at shallow corner, straight up wall to ledge.
Dave Bowen, John Marshall 23/4/03.

MICRO ADVENTURE 22m 19

A nice wall of solid grampians like rock. Start 15 m right of Ultion, up on a ledge just right of Cut Lunch. (the tree in the latter's description has since fallen over and died.) climb the groove as for Ciao Professore and step left onto the face and up right. Move back left to a small ledge at horizontal break. Up left side of face past a bolt, then back right to climb chimney/pillar.
Mike Broadbent, Tony Barker 20/10/01

CIAO PROFESSORE 25m 17

Start 15m right of Ultion. Up groove to base of wall and right onto detached flake. Up to incipient groove crack which leads to the ramp below the triangular roof. Up crack to left for 5m, then traverse right to small roof. Step up right to arete.

Mike Broadbent, Tony Barker June 2001

Jaffle Wall

SCOOP THE POOL 35m 19

Nice climbing on the major arête right of Ultion, joining Generosity. Start at the left end of Jaffle Wall. Start up toxic shock, the crack through the right side of the scoop. Move left across the scoop with 2 bolts and around onto the very base of the arête with instant exposure, passing a third bolt.. Up the arête, joining Generosity at half height. Up to a DBB and abseil.

Tony Barker and Mike Broadbent
16/4/2001

GENEROSITY (already written up)

A really good climb, but better done by starting up Hold Tight (ie. Up Ultion briefly then right into niche and right again to arête). Though it is 55m it can be climbed as one pitch with simul-climbing of the first and last 5m, both of which are easy.

The Lob Off Boys (Hally and Daishy)

NIGHT OF 1000 JAFFLES 30m 18

Start as for Night of the Long Jaffles, about 8m right of Toxic Shock. Climb up and left onto the line, and up into a pod shaped scoop (this is common to NOTLF and Toxic Shock). Exit this straight up and move leftwards under the overlap and onto the steep slab above. Move up and left to Generosity's belay. Abseil off.

Mike Broadbent, Tony Barker 16/4/2001

SNAFFLED 45m 17

(1)35m 17. The centre of the upper section of the wall. Start from top of Alien Country or Goodvibes Direct. Climb easy ledges and walls to below roof. Up diagonal crack right through roof and on to ledge. (2) 10m 12. Traverse right to corner and up to top.

Mike Broadbent, Tony Barker Easter
2003.

GREEN BLOODED RASTAFARIAN
25m 17

Start as for Orion but traverse right 3m before Whirlybird. Traverse to arête and up past BR to alcove. Shane Mitchell, Belinda Coad, Easter 2001.

Shane reckons this is worth a star. Pat, Rob and Vaughan repeated it and say its 16.

SHADOWBOXING Shane has freed Shadowtime at grade 18. Shane also replaced the slings in the Remnant belay alcove with bolts and chains. Nice one.

PROJECT

DWARFISM 19 40m **

Dave Bowen 21/4/03.

THE GOOD LIFE 21 40m
The obvious arete 5 metres left of Miles from Nowhere. 13 bolts and DBB. Take some wires/cams for first 7 metres.
Rob Baker, Jackie Bernardi - Easter 2010

GOBLIN MISCHIEF DIRECT START 50m 26
Through roof past a few bolts to finish up the magical arete of Goblin Mischief
HB 2007

UNREAL 54m 26
Goes up the middle of the right wall of the Great Chimney. (1) 27m 25 Start at the orange corner left of Reality Factor, Wild Oscar etc. Up corner to ledge where 1st bolt is carefully stick clipped. (Make sure it cannot unclip and/or back it up with cams 2m down lower). Hectic climbing up to horizontal. Right along this to arête (green alien or equivalent). Up arête passing 2 carrots to meet RF at the roof. Hanging belay as for that route. (2) 27m 26 Traverse 1m into RF's second pitch then blast straight up wall above passing 2 FH's and 2 carrots. Finish at abseil station at big boulder chockstone. 50m abseil to ground Rack: Bolt plates, single rack of cams to 4 inches (doubles up to #1 handy) and wires of course! NB could be led as one mega pitch.
Gareth Llewellyn & Douglas Hockly (alt)
15th Jan 2004

The next route goes up the middle of the imposing overhanging orange Guru Wall, near the northern end of the Ramparts. It was formerly an incomplete Stuart Williams project, but a good effort by Steve has now produced . . .

MEDITATIONS 27 _

Climbs the amazing diagonal rib on Guru Wall. Start as for Buzzard Arete. Up past the first 3 bolts on that route then up and right along the rib past Fists and Toys to finish at the hanging belay on Buzzard arête (numerous bolts).

Steve Pollard, October 2002.

Calitris Corner

TOO LATE TO STOP HEATHER

MOONDANCING 50m 18

A good long combo route. Start up Heather, move right to small stance, continue trending right and up TLTSN. Straight up wall to finish at chains left of Moondance.

Dave Bowen, John Marshall Oct 2003

MOON UNIT 40m 17

The line just right of Moondance. Start 2m right of Moondance and continue up wall with thin protection until a few metres below roof. Continue up Vibrator or traverse left to Moondance wall chains above Be Stiff.

Rob Baker, Seth Debolt July 2003

RIPL 60m 16

(1) 16 30m As for Rush pitch 1. (2) Move left to the end of ledge and onto slab. Straight up middle of slab thru acres of moss avoiding Earthspan and other Rush variants.

Dave Bowen and John Marshall 30/3/2002

Steve Pollard July 2003

SHATTERED 35m 17

The black wall right of Finale. Start up Finale's chimney to tree. Step right onto wall and climb the centre, with move right to arete at mid height for gear. Take thin tape for small bollard runner on upper section. Belay at large sloping ledge. Move across right to Body Free Fall's belay bolts and abseil off. A desperate direct start would be possible.

Mike Broadbent, Tony Barker Easter 2003.

DEVILS ADVOCATE 45m 22

Starts at the tree on the right side of the Little Great Wall.

(1) 15m Up the friable scary flakes to the ledge on side wall level with top of tree.

(2) Quality climbing for the entire pitch.

James Falconer, Geordie Webb, Easter 2004.

LEFT IDLE 22 25m

Interesting arete climbing. Obvious square arete at northern end of Northern group right of Phaedra. Quite a few bolts. Bolted by Dave Bowen who added a variant left start. Rob climbed the arete direct from the base. Both variants worthwhile

Rob Baker, Mick Wells August 08. Dave Bowen added the variant start coming in from the left from Phaedra.

Crag X

WITYATI 16m 14

Crack between Capricious Folly and Treebeard, beginning at 5m (abseil in). Finish up slot. Needs a start. In fact, if you can boulder the start, continue up one of the impressive walls either side of the crack!

Paul Badenoch 10/6/01

FLAKE OF FEAR 20m 23

Line up wall right of Wityati, with questionable flake a couple of metres above horizontal. Done in excellent style without the need to place a bolt.

Steve Pollard, Kate Howell, May 2004.

AKURRA 18m 18

Begins among dead trees 5m R of Great Rip Roaring Climb. A fun start (have a #00 cam ready), then up L-bearing line to the ledge. Cross GRRC and climb small LH corner.

Paul Badenoch 2/9/01

WALPINA 19m 17

Line beginning 4m R of Akurra and 4m L of Unbridled Passion. When the rock deteriorates, step R to join UP and thus to the ramp. Move 1m R and finish up the wall (juggy but runout near the top). Take a #00 cam.
